Do you have a love for teaching? Do you want to provide a meaningful contribution to the future of our profession? Sheridan College's Veterinary Technician program is looking for an RVT VTS (Dentistry) to develop the curriculum for, and teach, our new Veterinary Dentistry for Veterinary Technicians course. This course is for second year, third semester students.

The curriculum development will take place over the summer months, with teaching commencing in September for a 12 week semester. Curriculum development consists of devising: weekly lectures, written and practical assessments, activities, exams, online activities, etc. The developer will work closely with the Program Coordinator and Centre for Teaching & Learning to ensure the utmost standards of quality in education are met. This contract will be issued separate from the teaching contract.

Due to the alternative modality of our program, the individual must be creative, have a strong knowledge base, and a keen interest in acting as a collaborator and mentor. Prior educational experience, or credentials in teaching & learning in post-secondary/adult education, is a strong asset.

Posting date: Jan, 3 2017
