Our state-of-the-art veterinary practice in Los Altos has a full dental suite with dedicated and talented dental technicians. Come join our team! Advanced equipment, 3 dental tables, 3 dental machines, 2 digital xray units, plenty of dental packs and even a dental autoclave. Advanced monitoring equipment at every table! Our Los Gatos location has a two table suite, the 'Cadillac' of dental machines, digital xray unit and a small hospital feel. Willing to consider and support any tech considering a VTS in dentistry!

Along with this we have a 24-hour ICU in Los Altos, full-service surgery department (including staff dedicated to instrument care and maintenance), an on-site pharmacy staffed with pharmacy technicians, full-time cleaning staff, and over twenty-five doctors that you work as a team with to provide high quality patient care in our 24-hour hospital.

We are looking for veterinary technicians with 2 years experience or more who are passionate about pet dentistry! RVT required but will consider applicants with a goal to get RVT in near future.

Job Responsibilities

Prerequisite For Trainees:

Extensive knowledge in anesthesia monitoring; the ability to recognize anesthetic emergencies, along with the capability to respond to these emergencies quickly and appropriately.

Training Plan Guidelines:

There are FOUR Dental Technician skill levels at Adobe. Each level requires specific tasks and techniques to be achieved. Trainee must successfully complete each skill three times (as documented and initialed by Trainer), and show understanding of specific field, in order to advance to the next training phase.
